

Welcome to the Gleemen Photo Album

This page contains photographs from the Gleemen Archive for 2025

2025 started with a couple of concerts held at Nantyffyllon Rugby Football Club, our practice base and home of the Maesteg Gleemen. The first two photos below were taken at our first event of the year on 9/02/25 at a memorial concert for Mrs. Pat Jenkins.

The Maesteg Gleemen have always supported and helped raise funds for many charities. 2025 is no exception, so please contact us if we can help out your organisation in this way.

The next two photos were taken on 12/02/25 at a concert to launch a cancer support group in the Maesteg area.

On a very warm day, 29th April the Gleemen entertained the residents of Picton Court, and a good time was had by all.

On the 2nd May, the Gleemen were delighted to present a charity concert for Ty Hafan at The Riverboat, Caerau.

On the 8th May The Maesteg Gleemen sang at the Llangynwyd Village Hall for the 80th anniversary of VE Day celebrations. Fish and Chips suppers were provided by Emilia's Fish Bar in recognition of the role traditional British fish and chips shops played in helping to feed the nation during the war.

The Choir opened the evening's celebrations at the 1920s themed Mayor of Maesteg's Charity Ball on 17th May in our magnificently refurbished Maesteg Town Hall.

Every year the Maesteg Gleemen organise and present the Dunraven Welsh Singer of the Year in the Royal Welsh College of Music and Drama. The competition started in 2003, and this year's event was held on 7th June, when, for the first time, the 19-31 year old class had joint winners, Erin Rossington, soprano, and Twm Tegid, baritone. What an afternoon of music making!

Here is a selection of photos from the event showing some of the finalists.

The choir also supports private events such as birthday parties, weddings and funerals. We sang at a surprise birthday party on the 15th June in the River Boat club and at a funeral on the 19th June along with many other such events during the year.

On the 22nd June, we covered two events that Sunday, starting with a surprise birthday party in Swansea then going on to Chepstow to join an Elvis weekend Gospel event in St. Mary's Priory Church.

At Practice on 26/06/25 we were able to present a cheque to Ty Hafan with the money raised from our charity events for the good cause. This was greatly appreciated.

On the 28th June, we sang at a Funeral at Margam Crematorium, helping the family give their loved one the send-off they felt she would appreciate.
